25X1

1. Between 5 and 11 October 1953, source determined that more than 50 officers with ranks from senior lieutenant up to and including colonel attended the course at the Landesjugendheim in Strausberg. During the period under review, officers with books were continuously seen entering and leaving the installation. A T-34 tank and another tank without a gun were in the barracks area for instruction purposes.

2. On 11 October, the Infanterie Kaserne was occupied only by cadre personnel. A new course was to start on 1 November.¹
